Is It Time to Recycle

Healthy Business

Your Old Plan ?

Kathy Kane, president of Market Insights, LLC will present "Marketing For A Healthy Business" at the Healthy Downriver Expo- Build Your Business Breakfast Saturday April 2, 2011

Find out what is new and what works for small business. Learn about inexpensive and effective marketing opportunities available for the health of your business. Includes breakfast and admission to the Healthy Downriver Expo immediately following the program

Kane will discuss with company owners, marketing managers and start up ventures what the average small business needs to know to market themselves, not only now, but with a twenty year plan in mind.

Learn ways to "stand out" in a crowd of like businesses. Participants will walk away with materials to effectively market their business, even on a very limited budget.
